Where will your travels take you this year?

Sipping tea and nibbling fresh cream scones along the South West coast, taking in the jaw-dropping views of Scotland or maybe somewhere in between.

Our 22 parks, with a variety of pitches, are scattered here, there and everywhere around Britain’s coast. Some stretch across the glorious Yorkshire cliffs and offer non-stop action. One is even tucked away in the Cornish dunes with everything including a spectacular beach just a short walk away.

New for 2019

We always work our hardest to keep making your holidays better and better – but this year our improvements are taking a massive leap forward. Five parks are the first in line for amazing transformations. You’ll find spectacular new places to play, eat and enjoy time together. Just right for creating even more lifelong family memories.

For all children, great and small

Our huge new activity facilities will have something for everyone, whatever the weather; they’re coming to Haven y Môr and Craig Tara. The best bits include mini 4x4 off-roading and treetopping high-jinks.

Much more to tuck into

We’re bringing lovely grub closer to the heart of everything we do – you’ll find loads of places to hang out together. We’ve created all kinds of restaurants, bars and eateries that bring the outside in, with cosy snugs, driftwood and greenery – from pizza to traditional tea shops. Haven y Môr in particular are welcoming a great big new range of eateries.

From the tiniest tots to the most mature family members, everyone will find something they love. It’s up to you – pick an adrenaline rush, a super-charged splash, get engrossed in indoor amusements or plump for the squishiest, softest play. Because we’re thinking so big, most of our plans are still in the early stages... but you can get a sneaky peek at haven.com/new2019.

Nature Rockz

Does your family like to run wild? Then they’ll love Nature Rockz. Our range of outdoor activities give your rosy-cheeked explorers the chance to pick up a new skill or two in the great outdoors.

Kids of all ages can get in on the action. From building shelters in the bush to sculpting sandcastles by the sea, our Rangers have got all kinds of activities to get everyone on their feet and into the wild.

Sign your kids up for a Nature Rockz activity and watch them become junior survivalists. In no time at all they’ll learn how to make campfires with the best of them.

Pint-sized Picassos can nurture their artistic side with pebble art and nature-themed designs. Plus, there are woodland trails and coastal walks to get the whole family up close and personal with everything nature has to offer. Nature Rockz activities are available at all of our parks, so there’s no excuse not to give them a go!

Activities vary by park. See haven.com for full details. To book your holiday, contact your local travel agent.
Pack your sense of Adventure
Lots of fun, for free

We cram every day with more fun activities than you can shake a stick at. It doesn’t matter if you’ve lucked out with the weather or it’s raining cats and dogs – there’s always something to get up to. Best of all, loads of it’s free.

Feeling the heat? Jump into one of our famous pools. We’ve got indoor pools, outdoor pools and SplashZones, the most fantastic flumes and slooshy slides that’ll have everyone shouting ‘again’!

The fun doesn’t stop there, either. The kids can burn off their excess energy on our sports courts and in our play areas, with loads of organised activities and chances for freeplay.

Then there’s wall-to-wall entertainment day and night. Start your morning off with the Seaside Squad at Rise and Shine, when our troop of characters join the kids for breakfast and get them pumped for the day ahead. Later on, take your seats as our FunStars and Theatre Company take to the stage with their pop-tastic singing and dancing.

Facilities vary by park.
Everything tastes better by the seaside

Whether you fancy a quick coffee or a family feast, we’ve got teatime covered. Taking the crew out to eat? No worries. Even the fussiest of eaters will love our selection of family-friendly restaurants and casual cafés. As well as our own food joints like fish and chips, we’ve got crowd pleasers like Papa John’s Pizza and Burger King right here in our parks.

For a cheeky treat, you can even order pizza straight to your caravan, chalet or apartment.

Staying in for the night? Piece of cake! Our Mini Market has all the fresh bread, fruit and veg you need to cook up a feast and keep those bellies full.

Restaurants and services vary by park.

Lreads to try, for a little extra

Fancy giving something new a go? Well, you’re in luck. We’ve got an action-packed schedule bursting at the seams with activities for the whole family to try out. Take to the zip-line and unleash your inner daredevil. Send the kids on an underwater adventure with our AquaJets. Go wild with outdoor activities like Aerial Adventure, fishing and archery. For just a little extra, our Activity Bundles are a good value way to make the most of your holiday.
Scotland and Northumberland

Craig Tara Holiday Park | Seton Sands Holiday Village
Haggerston Castle Holiday Park

Whoever said it’s grim up north has clearly never seen the ancient castles, glorious glens and quaint coastlines that Scotland and Northumberland have to offer. Adventure-seeking souls would do well to seek out Northumberland’s supersized Kielder Water & Forest Park. And wildlife tours of the Farne Islands will give animal lovers plenty to squeal about.

Things to do

Edinburgh Zoo
Heaving with over 1,000 species of animals including pandas, chimpanzees and the occasional pygmy hippopotamus, Edinburgh Zoo is a menagerie of mega-fun. A packed calendar of events and activities means there’s loads to learn and even more to see.

Alnwick Castle
Pack your broomsticks and enter a realm of adventure at Alnwick Castle. Famous for featuring in the first two Harry Potter films, Alnwick is essential viewing for aspiring wizards and film and history buffs.

Farne Islands
Got any budding ornithologists in your flock? Swoop on down to the Farne Islands. Dramatic and beautiful, these rocky islands are a well-known perching spot for puffins and many other species of seabird. Take a boat tour along the islands and you might even spot a seal pup or two!

New!

The words ‘picture perfect’ were made for the rolling hills and tremendous trails of Yorkshire and Lincolnshire. Walking through charming market towns, romantic ruins and historic houses and gardens will have you feeling like you’ve stepped into a postcard.

Things to do

Robin Hood’s Bay
Pull on your walking boots and take a trip to Robin Hood’s Bay. Full of cozy inns, fishing cottages, brooding cliffs and the twisting streets of Smugglers’ Town, the bay is Yorkshire’s coastline at its most raw and exciting.

Fantasy Island
Log flumes, dodgems and hair-raising rides that’ll have you screaming for more. Nothing says ‘fun day out’ quite like a trip to Skegness’s Fantasy Island. If roller coasters aren’t quite your thing, activities like tenpin bowling and the Lava Creek Adventure golf course definitely will be.

Claythorpe Watermill
Looking for a place to picnic in Lincolnshire? Look no further than this small, family-run former watermill. It’s a great place to sit by the river, soak up the atmosphere and have a spot to eat. Oh, and they’ve got marmosets, wallabies and chipmunks scurrying about in the animal enclosures – so make sure to give them a wave!
Rainy Days, Just Perfect for Splashing
Essex

The Orchards Holiday Village

With sand, sea and sun in abundance, the south east has plenty going for it. Essex is home to some of the UK’s most well-loved seascapes, like Faversham, Clacton and Whitstable. With good times never more than a short drive away, all you need to do is bring the bucket and spade.

Things to do

Colchester Zoo
Listed as one of the best zoos in the world and home to over 260 species, Colchester is well worth going ape over. Oh, and it’s only half an hour from the beach!

Clacton-on-Sea
A traditional seaside town with long sandy beaches, water sports, a Victorian pier with amusements and a fun fair. There is so much for the whole family to enjoy here.

Beth Chatto Gardens
Discover The Gravel Garden, The Water Gardens, The Scree Beds and The Woodland as you explore the gardens created by Beth Chatto.
Wales

The birthplace of the legendary King Arthur, Wales is a magical place brimming with culture, epic views and breathtaking beaches. Want to start a few legends of your own? Head to Snowdonia for 100mph zip-lining. Or get wet and wild with coasteering along the North Pembrokeshire coastlines. Plus, history buffs will get a kick out of Wales’ 600 castles and landmarks.

Things to do

Snowdonia National Park
A rugged coastline, stunning peaks and gorgeous views make Snowdonia a treasure trove of family fun. Walk your way up to the fabled summit or take the scenic route via the Snowdown Mountain Railway. Beyond the craggy peaks lies the sunny southern coast of the Llyn Peninsula where unspoilt wildlife, water sports and family-friendly destinations await.

Zip World Titan
Any adventurer worth their salt would be blooming mad to miss a trip to Zip World Titan. Europe’s largest zip-lining zone, it lets you and your family take flight from half the height of Snowdon. Whilst it’s definitely not for the faint-hearted, the amazing quarry views make it well worth the ride.

Heatherton World of Activities
Jump into a world of fun at this award-winning family attraction. Located in beautiful Pembrokeshire in south west Wales, it offers a mind-blowing range of activities the whole family can enjoy. Take aim with archery, get behind the wheel of a go-kart and live life in the fast lane, or battle it out on the paintballing course. Open all year round and free to enter, there’s never a dull minute.

New!

Lots of developments coming to Hafan y Môr in 2019. Check out haven.com/new 2019
Norfolk

With gorgeous countryside, beautiful beaches and miles of unspoilt coastline that seems to go on forever, Norfolk has plenty to write home about. Explore the Broads and Broad’s winding waterways or soak up the sun in Great Yarmouth. The birdwatching capital of the UK, Norfolk is also teeming with top-class nature reserves where the eagle-eyed can spot barn owls, kingfishers, peregrines and more!

Great Yarmouth
East Anglia’s premier resort town has everything you could want from a sunny getaway. Pristine sandy beaches, bustling boardwalks and seaside amusements are all there to be enjoyed, as well as all manner of water sports, rides and attractions. They don’t call it ‘Great’ for nothing, folks.

Africa Alive!
Ever fancied going on safari? Here’s your chance. Set within 100 acres of countryside, Africa Alive! is home to five species of African savannah animals, as well as a wide range of British wildlife. Spot graceful giraffes and heavyweights rhinos as part of the Plains of Africa experience, where you can even get up close and personal with some of Africa’s most majestic creatures.

Roarr! Dinosaur Adventure
Any junior palaeontologists in your crew will get a thrill out of this newly revamped adventure park. Dinosaur trails, deer safaris and attractions like the Predator! High Ropes, make this blast from the past well worth a look-in.

Things to do

Caister-on-Sea Holiday Park | Wild Duck Holiday Park
Welcome to Nature's Playground
Dorset

Hosts of the 2012 Olympic sailing, Dorset is unrivalled when it comes to crashing waves and dramatic coastlines. Feast your eyes on the Jurassic Coast – a sensational stretch of 200 million-year-old shoreline, where fossils are never too far off. Stretch your legs and explore one of the many walking routes or uncover ancient landmarks and Roman ruins.

Things to do

Brownsea Island
Full of thriving natural habitats, Brownsea Island is ideal for those with a thirst for adventure. Explore its lush lagoons, winding woodlands and hilly heathlands – you might even be lucky enough to spot rare wildlife such as red squirrels or the mysterious sika deer.

Monkey World
Go ape at the award-winning Monkey World rescue centre. Home to a wide range of endangered primates from around the world, this 65-acre park is a must-visit for animal lovers.

Nothe Fort
Round up your soldiers for a trip to Nothe Fort. Built by the Victorians, this 19th century fort is filled to the rafters with ramparts, gun decks and underground pathways. An on-site museum lets keen learners step backwards in time and far-reaching views of the Jurassic Coast make a great backdrop for picnics.
It’s no secret that the rest of the UK has a soft spot for Blackpool. With attractions like The Big One (the UK’s tallest rollercoaster) and the legendary Pleasure Beach, what’s not to go crazy for? The Lake District gets a lot of love, too. Visitors have been going wide-eyed over its glorious scenery since the days of Wordsworth, Coleridge and even Beatrix Potter. Take a trip and see why for yourself.

Things to do

Blackpool Pleasure Beach and Piers
The award-winning Blackpool Pleasure Beach is the ultimate day out. Take in a show, hop on one of the exciting theme park rides, or just watch the world go by from the pier. Whatever you get up to, you’re bound to have more than a few good memories to take back with you.

Sandcastle Waterpark
Dive right into the action at the UK’s largest indoor waterpark. The waterpark features over 18 slides including loopy waterslides, splashy pools and wicked wave machines. And there’s even a relaxing spa complete with steam rooms, heated lounges and aromatherapy – perfect for mums and dads after a little bit of TLC.

The World of Beatrix Potter
Beatrix Potter’s much-loved stories come to life at this vibrant family attraction in the heart of the Lake District. Full of fun activities and things to see, there’s even a chance to meet the cheeky Peter Rabbit and his friends.
Cornwall and Somerset

Perran Sands Holiday Park | Burnham-on-Sea Holiday Village

What is it that makes the West Country one of Britain’s favourite holiday destinations? Our money’s on the glorious nature reserves, world-class beaches and top-notch surfing. Between beach basking, kite surfing, and beyond, there’s always something lovely to get up to.

Things to do

Eden Project
The size of 30 football pitches, the Eden Project is a gigantic global garden housed in futuristic tropical biomes. Flourishing under the Cornish sun, Eden lets you walk among tropical plants, wander through rainforests and marvel at nature. More than just a huge green space, this epic enclosure teaches an important message about looking after our environment.

Land’s End
Take in breathtaking views at one of mainland Britain’s furthest points. From the 200-foot-high granite cliffs you can gaze at interest points such as the Isles of Scilly and Longships Lighthouse. Squint hard enough and you can even start to make out the Isles of Scilly.

Wookey Hole Caves
Underground caverns. Rare rock formations. Maybe even a dinosaur or two. Wookey Hole Caves has everything you need for an underground adventure. Spend the day exploring the UK’s largest show cave system or whack things up a notch with abseiling and climbing.
Views don't get much better than this.
